4 Admission fee waiver(deferral) • Tuition fee waiver

For students enrolled in the Graduate School, the university has its own system to waive the admission fee in full or in half, within budgetary limits, after examination of the application by the student. After screening process, Admission Fee may be deferred until March 31(Tue), 2026 for those who have applied for deferral of Admission Fee. For details of the program, application requirements and procedures, please refer to the application guidelines posted on the following website of Kanazawa University.

Those who apply for Admission fee waiver (deferral) must submit a set of application documents for Admission fee waiver (deferral) without paying Admission Fee during the admission procedure period. You will be allowed to defer the payment of the Admission Fee and Tuition Fee until you are notified of the result of your application.

Admission fee waiver (deferral)

https://www.kanazawa-u.ac.jp/students/economic/exemption\_grace

Tuition fee waiver

https://www.kanazawa-u.ac.jp/students/economic/tuition\_waiver

(1) You are eligible for admission fee waiver(deferral) or tuition waiver if you fall under the case below.

① Graduate students who fall into one of the following categories

- Those who are suffering difficulties in paying admission fees or tuition fees due to economic reasons, and have an outstanding academic record.
- Those who are suffering difficulties in paying admission fees or tuition fees due to the death of their tuition payer, or because their tuition payer or the student suffer wind and flood damages or other disasters within a year before their admission (from October 2024 to September 2025)

② Those who belongs households whose finances have changed rapidly as a result of the new coronavirus infection or large-scale disaster (severe disasters or similar, such as the Noto Peninsula earthquake of 2024) and are suffering difficulties in paying admission fees or tuition fees.

(2) Application Procedures

① How to get application documents

If you apply for admission fee waiver or tuition waver, make sure to obtain application forms before admission procedures and prepare for paperwork. You can download the forms from Kanazawa University website above.

The guidelines will be posted on the website in mid-August.

② Documents to be submitted

Please refer to the application guidelines posted on the website.

③ When to submit application documents: During the admission procedure period of each Graduate School (See page I -1) [Strict observance]

④ Where to submit application documents

Admission fee waiver(deferral): See "3 Where to Make Inquiries" on page I-4 to I-6.

Tuition fee waiver: Student Support Section, Educational and Student Support Division, Student Affairs Department (Administration Office, 2F)

※However, those who also apply for admission fee waiver (deferral) and students who commute to Takaramachi and Tsuruma campuses should submit the application to the admission office of the graduate school to which they plan to belong, as indicated in "3 Contact Information" on pages I-4 to I-6.

(3) Notes

- ① The application documents for admission fee waiver(deferral) and tuition fee waiver are the same. When you are applying for both admission fee waiver and tuition fee waiver, one set of documents should be submitted.
- ② If you apply for admission fee waiver or tuition fee waiver, we will postpone your admission fee payment or tuition fee payment until we give you a notice of our screening result. If you pay admission fee prior to the notice, we will regard you as withdrawing from your application for admission fee waiver.

- ③ If our screening process has led to half waiver or no waiver, and you fail to pay the admission fee within 14 days from notification of the results of screening process, then you will get expelled from Kanazawa University. Even if you are granted deferral of Admission fee, if you do not pay the admission fee by March 31(Tue), 2026 your admission will be cancelled and you will get expelled from Kanazawa University.
- ④ If your application for admission fee waiver is not granted a full waiver, you may apply for a deferment of the admission fee.
- ⑤ Even when applying for tuition waiver, "Deposit account transfer request form" (in the case of a designated bank) or "Application for automatic payment" (in the case of Japan Post Bank) must be submitted. Please be sure to complete the account transfer procedure as we will confirm that at the time of the tuition fee waiver screening. If you are currently a student at our university and are already using the tuition deposit account transfer system, it will continue automatically. Therefore, unless you will change your registered account, you are not required to carry out procedures.
- ⑥ Entrance exam scores may be taken into account in the screening process.
- ⑦ If you wish to withdraw from Kanazawa University before the screening results are announced, you need to pay the admission fees and then withdraw from Kanazawa University.

5 Paying Tuition

How to Pay Tuition

(1) Tuition fee

	First semester (1 st and 2 nd quarter)	Second semester (3 rd and 4 th quarter)
Common to all graduate schools (Except for law school)	¥267,900	¥267,900
Division of Law and Politics Graduate School of Law	¥402,000	¥402,000

(Note)

The above amount is the expected amount. If the amount is revised during admission or while you are enrolled, the new tuition fee amount will apply.

(2) How to pay tuition

- ① Payment is made via the “Bank Account Transfer System,” which automatically deducts money from your bank account. Make sure to open a bank account in your, or your tuition payer’s name at the financial institution specified by Kanazawa University (if you already have an account at the specified financial institution, it is possible to use that account), and conduct bank transfer procedures. After the account transfer procedure, please submit only the “Application for Deposit Account Transfer” (for designated banks) or “Application for Automatic Payment Service” (for Japan Post Bank) “for University Custody” within the admission procedure period or by the end of the month prior to the month of enrollment. (If you cannot submit the application within the admission procedure period, please submit it by September 30(Tue), 2025.) However, international students who will be newly arriving in Japan are not subject to the submission deadline. Please submit the required documents as soon as they become available.
- ② For details on bank transfer procedures and the tuition bank transfer dates, please refer to the pamphlet “Tuition Fee Payment.”
- ③ Students currently enrolled at Kanazawa University already using the Tuition Bank Account Transfer System, deductions will continue automatically. Therefore, unless you will change your registered account, you are not required to carry out procedures.

(3) Other

We will inform you of the tuition bank transfer dates and tuition amount in early April and early October every year via the university website.

2 Acknowledging University Credits You have earned before admission

If you have already earned some credits at graduate school of Kanazawa University or any other university before entering Kanazawa University, we might acknowledge these credits as you have earned them by taking lectures at Kanazawa University after admission. We will accept such credits if we find it beneficial for educational purposes.

If you wish to have your credits acknowledged by us in this manner, ask detail information at the section in charge at your division in advance.

Make arrangements for the following documents in advance because you need to attach them to application form.

(1) Official transcript

(2) Syllabus (lecture outline) or course guide that describes class topics

(3) Other useful documents (we might request you to submit textbooks, notebooks, etc.)

3 Scholarships

The scholarships offered by the University include those from the Japan Student Services Organization (JASSO), local governments, and private scholarship organizations. All scholarships are mainly intended for students with excellent academic records who have difficulty paying for their studies for financial reasons.

For more information about scholarships for international students, please check the following website.

<https://intl-support.w3.kanazawa-u.ac.jp/tuition/>

4 Student Dormitory

At Kanazawa University, to promote international exchange and foster global talent, there are student dormitories “SAKIGAKE” and “Hokumei,” a share house type student dormitory where international and Japanese students live together in one unit.

“SAKIGAKE” is not accepting new Japanese students. (Subject to availability, applications are accepted at any time from the second semester of the first year.) Only when there are vacancies in “Hokumei”, we will accept Japanese applicants.

For more information about dormitories for international students, please check the following website.

<https://intl-support.w3.kanazawa-u.ac.jp/campuslife/accommodation/>

5 Periodic Medical Checkups

In order to make university life healthier and more meaningful, Kanazawa University Health Service Center carry out periodic medical checkup for all new students. Please be sure to undergo the health check-up that will be conducted after enrollment. However, if you are a working adult, you may instead submit the results of a health examination conducted at your workplace in the year of enrollment or a copy of the examination.

For details, please check the information page for periodic medical checkup on the center website (<https://hsc.w3.kanazawa-u.ac.jp/>). Be sure to check the flow of periodic medical checkup and precautions at the venue before visiting the clinic.

For inquiries regarding periodic medical checkup, please include your name, student ID number, affiliation, grade, etc. to the extent possible, and send an e-mail to the following address.

<https://hsc.w3.kanazawa-u.ac.jp/annual-medical-checkup/>

② Venue : Health Service Center

(2) How to undergo medical checkup on the venue

Receive “Checkup file case” at the reception in the Health Service Center → Take medical checkup → Submit “Checkup file case” to the designated counter

(3) Health survey (Web response)

Personal information obtained from this checkup will be in accordance with “* Handling of health checkup data”. We keep personal secrets. Before the health checkup, it is necessary to do the health survey items on the website. Please check the Center website for the answer method. To use it, you need to obtain a Kanazawa University network ID.

* Handling of health checkup data

Kanazawa University Health Service Center conducts regular health checkup and follow-up measures (re-examination, guidance, hospital introduction) to maintain and improve the health of students and to detect preventable diseases at an early stage. The results of health checkup (including interviews, medical certificates, and health surveys) not only help to understand the health condition of individuals and provide necessary support, but also grasp the health condition and living conditions of students and take necessary measures. The examinees are considered to have agreed that the health checkup data is used in a form that does not identify an individual to perform statistical analysis in order to improve the health of students and present the result at an academic conference. If you have any questions, please contact the Health Service Center.

(4) Important Notices

- ① Please be sure to bring your student ID card with you when you visit the venue.
- ② If you have not undergone the university's regular health checkup (including those who have submitted the results of a workplace health checkup instead of undergoing the university's regular health checkup), the university will not be able to issue a health certificate until you undergo the health checkup at the university and the results have been registered.
- ③ If you do not have a health certificate
  - This may interfere with your participation in extracurricular activities competitions.
  - You will not be able to take teaching practice, nursing care experience, clinical training, etc.
  - Internships and study abroad programs may not be permitted.
- ④ Please pick up a urine collection container from the student affairs office of your prospective graduate school the day before your checkup. On the day of your checkup, please collect your urine immediately after waking up and bring it to the examination venue.
- ⑤ If you are a working student and would like to submit the results of your workplace health checkup or a copy of it, please write your student ID number in the margin as soon as the results of your workplace health checkup are known and submit it to Health Service Center or student affairs office of the graduate school you will be affiliated to.

6 Infection Control Measures

Kanazawa University requests you to enroll after taking vaccinations defined in Preventive Vaccinations as long as there are no special reasons such as illness which prevents you from receiving the vaccination. In addition, in order to maintain your health, Kanazawa University strongly encourages you to take as much vaccination as possible for various diseases.

7 Notice from Health Service Center

(1) Individual Number Card (My Number card) as your Health Insurance Certificate or Health Insurance Eligibility Certificate

Please bring your “Individual Number Card (My Number card) as your Health Insurance Certificate” or “Health Insurance Eligibility Certificate” when you visit a hospital; it is required in order to receive medical insurance coverage for health care.

(2) First-aid kit

Please prepare a first-aid kit containing medicines such as cold medicine, thermometer, plaster, and so on. In addition, if you are taking medication for the treatment of disease, please include that medication.

(3) Outpatients for any disease

If you will enroll from a remote location to our university and you are a hospital outpatient for any disease, we recommend you to ask the family physician to write a letter of introduction (to provide your medical information) addressed to a hospital near our university and visit the hospital. If you do not know which hospital to visit, please ask the physician to write a letter of introduction addressed to Health Service Center.

8 Support Office for Students with Disabilities

At Kanazawa University, we have a Support Office for Students with Disabilities. Including those considering enrollment before entry exams, if you have a disability and in the case that support is expected to be necessary for study, we will conduct an in-depth consultation regarding the content of support.

If the above applies to you, please contact the Support Office for Students with Disabilities immediately after your admission has been confirmed (you have passed).

For details, please refer to “3 Where to Make Inquiries” on pages I-4 to I-6.

9 LGBTQ+ Consultation

Our university has established LGBTQ+ consultation desk.

Please contact us if you are worried about gender identity, sexual orientation, or sexual expression and so on. We also accept consultations regarding changing your name on your school register (using an alias) or changing your gender.

Pre-entrance counseling and consultation from those around LGBTQ+ students are also available. Please check out “LGBTQ+ Support Guide (<https://ipdi.w3.kanazawa-u.ac.jp/global#lgbtq>)”, describing our initiatives and responses. If you would like to use an alias upon enrollment, please contact the LGBTQ+ Counseling Center as soon as possible after you have been accepted.

For details, please refer to “3 Where to Make Inquiries” on pages I-4 to I-6.

10 Mandatory Student Insurance Designated By Kanazawa University

(2) Overview of Gakkensai

Within or outside of Japan, insurance payouts are made for ①sudden, incidental, and exogenous accidents during their education/research activities ②bodily injuries or accidents caused by accidents while commuting or while in transit between school facilities.

Coverage	Death benefits	Physical disability benefits	Medical benefits	Additional hospitalization Benefits (up to 180 days)
During regular curricular activities or school events	¥20 million	¥1,200,000 - ¥30 million	For 1 or more days of actual medical treatment; ¥3,000 - ¥300,000	¥4,000 per day
While staying in school facilities for reasons other than the above and extracurricular activities During the commute to school During transit between school facilities	¥10 million	¥600,000 - ¥15 million	For 4 or more days of actual medical treatment; ¥6,000 - ¥300,000
During extracurricular activities inside and outside school facilities (Activities outside the school facilities must be reported to the university)	¥10 million	¥600,000 - ¥15 million	For 14 or more days of actual medical treatment; ¥30,000 - ¥300,000	¥4,000 per day

(Note) Hospitalization surcharges are paid from the first day of hospitalization, regardless of medical insurance payments.

The number of treatment days refers to the number of days the patient actually spent hospitalized or attending the hospital.

(3) Overview of Liability Insurance Coupled with Gakkensai (Futaibaiseiki)

Students (the insured) will be covered up to the limit of payment against damages for which, during the period of this insurance, they may be held legally liable to pay in Japan or abroad for injuring a third party or damaging any property belonging to a third party, during their curricular activities, school events, extracurricular activities, or commuting to and from them. At Kanazawa University, we require all students Excluding international students to enroll in both Gakkensai and Futaibaiseiki.

International students are not required to join liability insurance, but are required to join the Comprehensive Insurance for Students Lives Coupled with Gakkensai for International Students (Inbound futai-gakuso) instead. Details will be explained at the Life Orientation for international students. For the purposes of Futaibaiseiki, "extracurricular activities" refers to internships or volunteer activities conducted by organizations that have been approved by the university as having the purpose of conducting internships or volunteer activities.

Course and limits of coverage

Course	Course A	Course C
Coverage	Regular curricular activities, school events, extracurricular activities and commuting to and from them	Regular curricular activities in the medical-related department and studies, school events, extracurricular activities and commuting to and from them (Includes medical-related practice)
Limit of coverage	100 million yen per accident combining both bodily injury and property damage (No deductible)*

* Limit of coverage for one insured person per year

(4) Application Procedures and Insurance Period

① Application Procedure

Please pay insurance premiums at the post office using the specified form. (The policyholder bears payment fee.)

② Application Procedure Period and Insurance Period

i If the insurance premium is paid by the end of the month before the enrollment month, the insurance will be valid from the enrollment date.

- ii If you pay the insurance premium after the month of enrollment, the insurance will be effective from the day after the premium payment.

(5) Others

- ① Use the payment invoice and receipt issued by the post office in place of a receipt for insurance premium. The university will not issue any receipt for insurance premiums. An insurance policy will not be issued, so keep your transfer payment invoice and receipt in a safe place.
- ② For more information regarding the insurance contract, check the “Personal Accident Insurance for Students Pursuing Education and (Gakkensai) Guide” distributed at the time of your admission. (Also check the website of Japan Educational Exchanges and Services (<https://www.jees.or.jp/>), which operates this insurance program.)
- ③ For details on the various procedures, please check the student insurance page on our university website. <https://www.kanazawa-u.ac.jp/students/livelihood/gakuseihoken/>
- ④ For inquiries regarding the Gakkensai and Futaibaiseiki, please contact the Health Service Center office.

For details, please refer to “3 Where to Make Inquiries” on pages I-4 to I-6.

11 Comprehensive Insurance for Student Life Coupled with Gakkensai (“Futaigakuso”)

<Optional>

University students are involved with diversified activities, such as on-campus projects as well as off-campus activities. In this context, Kanazawa University strongly recommends “Comprehensive Insurance for Student Life Coupled with Gakkensai” (Futaigakuso) as a compensation program capable of covering any aspect of your student life.

Futaigakuso provides 24-hour comprehensive insurance coverage to your student life (*1), as it covers actual expenses on treating off/on-campus injury/disease uninsurable with Gakkensai (including health insurance patient’s pay and novel influenza) and also takes care of your liability (during your part-time job or club activities) when you cause an accident. Futaigakuso is a user-friendly insurance program because the nationwide organization’s discount is applicable.

If you think Gakkensai does not provide sufficient insurance coverage, you may join Futaigakuso voluntarily. If you wish to join Futaigakuso, go through necessary procedures after confirming the insurance coverage, as shown in the enclosed brochure. In this insurance program, you can choose your insurance coverage type from several options. Only students who have joined Gakkensai are eligible for this insurance. International students are not required to join liability insurance because they are join the Comprehensive Insurance for Students Lives Coupled with Gakkensai for International Students (Inbound futai-gakuso).

Refer to the enclosed brochure for contact information on Futaigakuso.

(*1) Death or physical disability during your regular curricular activities or school events, in extracurricular activities (club activities) permitted by your school, or in school facilities (except for dormitory) are not covered with this insurance program, but with Personal Accident Insurance for Students Pursuing Education and Research (Gakkensai).

2 Voluntarily Refraining from Automobile or Motorcycle Commuting

Recently many students are commuting to school by car or by motorcycle, and we are troubled by the many traffic accidents caused by Kanazawa University students. Once you cause a traffic accident, it will not only cause significant hindrance for your academic studies, but it will also pose serious and long-term social and economic burdens for students with bright futures and their families.

Kanazawa University is easily accessible using public transportation. In light of this, we are asking our students to voluntarily refrain from commuting by car or motorcycle to the university, and we are working to make all students refrain from doing so. We ask students and their parents to understand our intention, and we strongly request the refraining of commuting by car or motorcycle to prevent traffic accidents and maintain a positive educational and research environment on campus. Also, we will not permit students to commute by car except in special circumstances. In the case of special circumstances such as physical disabilities, or when commuting by bus is very difficult for geographical reasons, please make a request to the person in charge of your graduate school.

In addition, according to the Road Traffic Law, bicycle users are obliged to make efforts to wear helmets. It is strongly recommended to wear a helmet when riding a bicycle.

The Ishikawa Bicycle Ordinance makes it required for bicycle users to get insurance. Get the insurance promptly, if you have not yet.
